

EmPowerHR Solidified as a Premier Professional Employer Organization and Provider of Payroll and Managed Services

CHICAGO, IL -- October 29, 2014 -- EmPowerHR, has reinforced its position to be the Midwest's leading provider of Human Resources (HR) services and solutions. This position was enhanced by the pending acquisition of their sister companies Laurus Strategies and ihouse, by HUB International.

"Up until now, we have been providing HR solutions for our clients through multiple brands. We are excited to consolidate client engagement into one brand, one house of experts, EmPowerHR," said President, Scott Carter. "We look forward to investing in new technologies, innovative services, and most importantly, devoting ourselves to the highest level of service to our clients."

EmPowerHR currently serves clients in the Midwest and Southern United States. These clients are comprised of law, medical, technology, professional, and services firms. Concentrating on the specific market segments allows EmPowerHR to be deeply ingrained in their industries of expertise, and to have a deep understanding of the clients and demographic of human capital they are serving.

"We believe our consistent focus in these sectors has helped us become more proficient in the development of useful human resources programs that increase productivity while mitigating risk," added Paul Salb, head of sales at EmPowerHR. "Moving forward, we are going to focus on the development of our client outreach in targeted markets."
